EDUCATION

Since the Academic Excellence (AE) programme was launched in 2005, we have seen students improving in their grades, coming in top in their schools and growing in curiosity and confidence as they apply the principles and wisdoms of AE. Every year, we kickoff our AE programme with these initiatives:

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Academic Excellence Open House

- We dedicate a few weekends in the year to talk about AE.
- Youth are encouraged to invite their parents & teachers.
- Our leaders will be present to discuss the well-being of the youth.

Study Requirement

- From July, we encourage students taking major examinations to complete 20 hours of study per week outside of their regular school hours.
- Enforcement is based on students' honesty. Thus, we encourage parents to monitor their child's revision as well.

Balancing Commitments

- During their "O" Level year, students must meet an L1R5 of ≤ 20 for leadership, and an L1R5 of ≤ 25 to volunteer in ministry.

SSS

Prizes & Rewards

- Each year, we encourage and motivate our youths by rewarding those who have scored well in their major exams (PSLE, "O" Levels, "A" Levels and at the Polytechnic).
- We also reward our Top All-Rounder Student and Most Improved Student.
- Over the last 16 years, we have given out more than S$140,000 worth of prizes in the form of cash, vouchers, iPads, iPhones, Apple Watches and so on.

FAMILY

We know parenting teens can be challenging and we are here to supplement your efforts to provide a positive environment at home.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY POLICIES

Family-Friendly Service Timings

- Services are held at 1:30 p.m. on the weekends.
- This is so that youths can meet their families for brunch or dinner.

Breaks for Family Bonding

- Our church is closed during key periods such as Chinese New Year.
- There are no services so that the youths can spend quality time with their family.

Weekly Quality Family Time

- We also encourage youths to spend quality time with their family every week.

ACHIEVING THE RIGHT BALANCE

During the school term, secondary school students are encouraged to go home earlier when they have school the following day so that they get enough rest and time to prepare for school.

They are also encouraged to have effective personal time management as well as to communicate proactively with their parents.
